Last Minute Reminders and Information

If you were not in a warm-up session last Sunday or Tuesday, you should receive information in a few hours about tonight's warm up session. If you missed your session or want to join tonight's event, email registrar@socalcontest.org with the Subject JOIN THURSDAY WARM UP.

SELF-SERVE WARM-UP: The warm up environment will be open for approximately 24 hours after tonight's event.

PST, UTC, GMT +/- n - You can practice any time, starting approximately 1900 PST this evening. You will be able to send clarifications, help emails and voice mails to the help line - it may take a while to receive a reply.

EOL, EOF, STDIN, STDOUT: There was some confusion over end-of-line, end-of-file, STDIN and STDOUT. See the exposition on the bottom section of Important Updates.

The Contest ZOOM passcode is the same as the Warm-Up Zoom passcode.

STDIN and STDOUT: The contest runs contestant submissions as applications that read from standard input and write to standard output.

Examples are provided in the Warm Up Packet.

If a problem description says, "Print a line" make sure the end-of-line character is included (language-specific).

Logins and passwords and ...

If this picture does not fully explain which login/password you need to use for which event, refer to the first 3 pages of the Warm-Up document (see Important Updates for the link.)

Details have been added to Important Updates.

Team Check In (before the contest)

The process will take up to 2 hours to complete for everyone. Please check in at your assigned time so we can be sure to have everyone checked in, on time, for the opening ceremony. You will receive check in time information for the contest on Friday (PST). Only contestants will be checking in - no coaches, co-coaches or alternates.

Follow the parking instructions where ever YOU are!

Webinars (Opening, Closing, etc.)

The Webinars will be open - there is no check in process. The Webinar links will be posted on Important Updates. Please check before each event - the link may have been updated. All contestants are expected to attend both the opening and closing events. We will be recording the event.

Has your TEAM COMPOSTION changed? (drop a member, replace a member) - Please email registrar@socalcontest.org. The check in team is waiting to see all team members in the Waiting room before checking your team in. Note: A 2-person team can compete in SoCal, but may not advance. But come have some fun, anyway!
